RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. The exhibition is to be held at the Exhibition building and grounds and to be continued open for five days. The first day opens at 10:00AM and closes at 10:00PM. Fair opens 10:00AM and closes at 10:00PM the following four days.

2. Admission Fees: Daily Passes (Adult) $10.00 Season Passes $50.00
   Daily Passes (10-16) $5.00 Season Passes $20.00
   Children Under 10 Free
   Seniors 65 years & older $5.00 (Wednesday Only)

3. Trailer Fees: Powered 15amp $20/night 30amp $25/night
   Non-powered $15/night

4. Rules of Entry: Intending exhibitors and visitors are particularly requested to read and consider carefully the following rules and regulations covering the Exhibition, which will be strictly enforced.

5. Premiums: Open to the province to be awarded to competitors for articles of their own growth or production, or ownership in the case of livestock. In various classes, the entry must in every instance be made in the name of the bona fide owner. In all cases the exhibitor shall be considered the owner for the duration of the Exhibition. Unless this rule is observed, no prize will be awarded such entry.

6. Articles exhibited, excepting stock, must be the growth, production, or manufacture of the present year, except if otherwise noted.

7. No exhibits shall be received after 10:00AM the first day of the exhibition. Unavoidable delays to be dealt with at the discretion of the committee. Exhibitors are urgently requested to make their entries prior to the opening day. No article that is on exhibit is to be removed before 9:00PM on the closing day of the exhibition, under forfeiture of all prizes that may have been awarded to the exhibitor. Livestock not to be removed until 8:00PM on closing day.

8. Attention to Exhibits: Exhibitors will at all time give personal attention to their exhibits, and at the close of the Exhibition, take charge of same.

9. If the exhibit of any section be of inferior quality, the judges will award only such premiums as they deem advisable, and they may exercise their discretion as to whether they will award any premium. This applies also to exhibits wrongly entered.

10. Safety of Exhibits: Special employees will be in charge and with the aid of Police will endeavor to protect property and insure good order. Yet it must be distinctly understood that the owners themselves must assume all risk. Should any article be accidentally injured, lost or stolen, while the Association will give all of the assistance in its power, it will not make any payment for the value thereof.

11. Each exhibitor will receive from the Secretary an entry tag for every article to be exhibited, and is required to affix such tag upon the article which is exhibited, specifying the class, section and exhibitor's number. Also, entry sheet to be filled in and returned to the Secretary.

12. Limit of Entries: No person shall be allowed to enter for exhibition more than one specimen of required quantity in any one section or more than one specimen from any one farm, garden or manufactured. This rule is not to be applied to animals.

13. Declaration of Exhibitor: Exhibitors shall, if required, make a statutory declaration that the articles are exhibited in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Association, and in case any exhibitor refuses to make such declaration on being requested, all premiums awarded shall be forfeited.

14. Expenses of Transportation by Exhibitor: Exhibitors must provide for the delivery of their articles upon the Exhibition grounds. The Association cannot make provision for the transportation or be subject to any expense thereof, either on their delivery at, or return from the grounds. All expenses, connected therewithin must be provided by the exhibitors themselves, and all expenses and cartage charges must have been prepaid.

15. Exhibits Addressed to Manager: Articles not accompanied by their owners must have the exhibitor's name plainly marked thereon, and be addressed to the proper department, in care of the Exhibition, except by and at the expense of their owners or their authorized agents.

16. All exhibits must remain intact until the close of the exhibition.

17. Any person behaving in an ungentlemanly behavior will be banned from the Exhibition for the period of one year. The Board of Directors of the Shelburne County Exhibition have the authority to take disciplinary action against any unruly or ungentlemanly behavior.

18. Any person who shall attempt to interfere with the judges while in the discharge of their duties, or shall attempt to influence their decisions by his presence or remarks shall forfeit his right to any prizes which he might otherwise be entitled to, and be otherwise dealt with as the committee may determine.

19. Judge to Refrain from Argument: The judges will not enter into argument with exhibitors as to the merits of their exhibits, but after judging a section, if time permits, they may state their reasons for their awards and answer reasonable questions.

20. How Judges Will Report: Judges will please sign and hand their list of awards to the Secretary or their assistant as soon as possible and make their more extended report afterward, with such recommendations as circumstances or their experience may suggest. The judges are particularly requested not to leave the grounds until they have ascertained that there are no protests against the awards in the classes which they have judged.

21. In the absence of sufficient numbers on a committee, the chairperson may choose a person or persons to assist the committee.

22. The award of the premiums will be paid in cash at the end of judging and after each competition.

23. Every exhibitor of livestock must, if required, make a statutory declaration that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, his herd is free from infections or contagious abortion before he shall be permitted to exhibit his herd or any portion thereof.

24. In all purebred classes the animals must be registered in the Canadian National Livestock Records or Association, approved by then, and such registration paper properly transferred to the exhibitor must be produced when required.

25. If the exhibit in any section be of interior quality, the judges will award only such premiums as they deem advisable, and they may exercise their discretion as to whether they will award any premium. This applies also to exhibits wrongly entered, such as dairy animals or beef classes.

26. For any cattle suspected to have ring-worm, the committee will call in an authorized veterinarian for inspection

27. Exhibitors not admitted: In all cases the right is reserved to reject entirely or to accept conditionally any entry or application; under no circumstances will animals which are suffering from contagious diseases, being of inferior condition or articles which are dangerous by reason of their combustible or explosive character, be admitted; and if such be introduced by an exhibitor, through misrepresentation or otherwise, they may be removed by order of the Manager.

28. The age of dairy cattle will be calculated from January 1st and September 1st of each year.

29. Ages of horses will be calculated to the first of January each year.

30. No animal under three months of age will be allowed to compete as separate entry.

31. All animals must be exhibited in the section set apart for their age. Younger animals will not be allowed to show in a section intended for older ones.

32. All animals must be shown in the ring and exhibitors must be ready to bring them out when called for.

33. Judging Rings: No person will be permitted in the judging rings during the time of the judging except the judges, their assistants, and the grooms.

34. All vehicles must be off the grounds by 10:00AM

35. All large livestock (oxen, cattle, draft horse & light horse) participants must show proof of liability insurance prior to showing.

36. No dogs on grounds unless for show or in campground. (Excluding support dogs). All dogs must be on a leash at all times.
37. No bicycles on the grounds during any events (i.e., exhibition, spring/fall haul, etc.)
